THE 4 MINUTES, 33 SECONDS CONTEST

An homage to John Cage's landmark composition of the same name, the 4 Minutes, 33 Seconds Contest highlights University of Georgia student research in the arts. The event offers an opportunity for students to win prizes and to share their creative inquiry with peers, faculty, administrators and alumni throughout the university community. The competition is open to any graduate student or undergraduate student working on an advanced research project related to the literary, visual, or performing arts or artists. This year's competition is coordinated by Katie Geha, Director of the School of Art Galleries in the Lamar Dodd School of Art. The 4 Minutes, 33 Seconds Contest is part of UGA's annual Spotlight on the Arts festival.
